

Baseball Ace Aughenbaugh

Joseph F. Aughenbaugh Sr., a former professional baseball player for the Washington Senators and an amateur star and manager in South Jersey for 13 years, died yesterday in Cooper Hospital, Camden.

Mr. Aughenbaugh lived at 17 N. Brown St., Gloucester City, where he operated a retail grocery store.

He played minor league base-ball between 1918 and 1931 in the Blue Ridge League of Hanover, Pa., the Monmouth, Gloucester City and Camden County Leagues. Mr. Aughenbaugh ended his baseball career in 1931 after managing the Gloucester City team.

He also was a member of the Gloucester Council, Knights of Columbus; Gloucester Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Frankford Quaker City Grocers Association, and was an Army veteran of the first World War. Surviving are his wife, Elma M.: a son, Joseph F. Jr. of Col-

M.; a son, Joseph F. Jr. of Collings Lake; three grandchildren and two sisters.

Requiem high mass will be at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in St. Mary's Church, Gloucester City. Friends will meet one hour earlier in the McCann Funeral Home, Brown and Monmouth Streets, Gloucester City, where they also may call tomorrow night, Burial will be in New St. Mary's Cemetery, Bellmawr.

Joseph Aughenbaugh

Clipped By:

timcopeland Thu, Nov 30, 2017

