

Elwin Kennedy Dies at 69 After Long Illness

Elwin H. Kennedy, 69, former minor league baseball player and resident of Salem for some five years, died Friday night at Portland Veterans Hospital after a long illness. The home was at 1695 Baker St. NE.

Kennedy played outfield with a San Francisco team in the Pacific Coast League of several decades ago and also played in Eastern minor leagues. He later operated a confectionery at Bend and residential hotel in the Coos Bay area.

He was with the Navy in World War I. His memberships included Masonic Lodge, Veterans of World War I and American Legion.

Surviving are the widow, Genevieve, Salem; daughter, Miss Shirley Kennedy, Portland; and sister, Mrs. J. F. McKee in North Bend, Ore.

Funeral arrangements are in care of A. J. Rose & Son Mortuary in Portland.

Elwin Kennedy obit

Clipped By:

timcopeland Sun, Dec 17, 2017

