

SENTER REINEY, ONCE BASEBALL MANAGER IN CLARKSVILLE, IS DEAD

An Associated Press dispatch of July 8, from Caruthersville, Mo., announces the death of Senter Reiney, 51, prominent business man of that place, and former minor leagues baseball player and manager.

Mr. Reiney died on last Wednesday of a heart attack, the dispatch stated.

Many Clarksville baseball fans recall that for one or more years he managed the local club in the old Kitty league. He was popular as a baseball manager, player and states are here. He had also played in the Cotton States and Western leagues and once had a trial with the Cincinnati Reds.

Reiney was a graduate of Union university at Jackson, Tenn.

Senter Reiney obit

Clipped By:

timcopeland Sat, Dec 9, 2017

