

Flint Doctor Dies; Once Helped Coach U. of M. Ball Team

FLINT, Jan. 6 (A)—Dr. Franklin E. (Tony) Reeder, 69, general practitioner here since 1910 and a one-time minor league baseball player, died here Monday.

Dr. Reeder was a past sepaker of the Michigan State Medical society's house of delegates. He played minor league baseball under the anme of Joe Kelly in New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Michigan before receiving his medical degree from the University of Michigan.

While at the university, he assisted Branch Rickey, then coach of the Wolverine baseball team and now general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates of the National league.

Funeral services will be held here Wednesday, with burial in his native New Bloomfield, Pa.

Frank Reeder obit

Clipped By:

timcopeland Sun, Dec 17, 2017