

Hubbard, in Braves Chain, Found Dead in Newark Car

Alfred Hermond (Herm)taken to Wilmington General He pulled Hubbard and the girl Hubbard of Newark, a prom-Hospital, ising young outfielder in the charged. Milwaukee Braves organization, car in Newark early today.

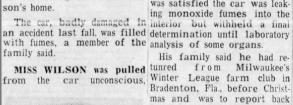

discovered 22- The cause of Hubbard's year-old Hubbard with his girl death was not established.

friend, Jennifer Wilson, 17, of the mean Miss Wil
THE MEDICAL examiner friend, Jennifer Wilson, 17, 61 43 Corbit St., near Miss Wil-was satisfied the car was leak-family said.

from the car unconscious,

Hermond Hubbard

for spring training March 1.

Wilson had attended a basket ond degree burns in a blast and ball game at Newark High blaze that crumpled her home School where Hubbard had at 27th Street and Thompson been a star outfielder and an Place. all-state football halfback.

being parked near Miss Wil- and friends. son's home shortly before 10 last night.

end street off Corbit Street. dealers, was at the fire scene motor running for several hours and went to investigate. Newark, was attempting to treate d and dis- out and notified Newark police. Hubbard was signed by the

Hubbard was pronounced Braves in 1958 and he played was found dead in a parked dead at the hospital at 3:15 for Milwaukee farm teams ever

See HUBBARD-Page 2, Col. 5

Victim ir Patrolme

By FRANK McCLUNG

With her hair burned short and her face puffed and swollen, He was unable to find a job Mrs. John H. Phillips Jr. lay in and was living with his family Delaware Hospital today fightat 74 New London Ave., New ing the effects of fire and explosion.

Her condition is fair. She LAST NIGHT he and Miss suffered shock and first and sec-

Nurses would allow no visi-His 1958 Chevrolet was seen tors beyond immediate family

She was under heavy sedation, sleeping most of the time. The car was parked about the Her husband, manager of the middle of Wilson Street, a dead- J. H. Phillips Coal Co., fuel A NEIGHBOR heard the early inspecting the damage.

A SON, John H. Phillips III,

Clipped By:

ronika m Thu, Sep 15, 2016

