

FORMER FOOTBALL STAR SUCCUMBS

'Andy' Gill, 61, Dies at Home in Florida After Heart Attack.

Thomas Andrew (Andy) Gill, Sr., 61 years old, one of Linton's all-time great football stars, died Saturday of a heart attack at his home at Daytona Beach, Fla., according to word received here.

Mr. Gill was born in Linton and spent his early life here. He was a player on the first Linton high school football team and played here for five years, competing one year when he was enrolled in the eighth grade.

After graduating from the LJinton high school he entered Indiana university, playing with the I. U. team in 1909, 1910 and 1911. He made one of the outstanding records of any football player ever to participate at that school and was mentioned several times for all-American honors. He was outstanding at track and baseball.

Following his graduation from I. U. he had served as coach in North Dakota, at Lexington, Ky., at Lombard college in Illinois and Michigan City high school in Indiana. He later became director of athletics at the Michigan City school.

His father, Vess Gill, was killed in Linton more than ten years ago. He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Mary Wright Gili; two sons, and a brother Cletus Gill of Indianapolis. A sister, Allie, died several years ago.

Details of funeral arangements were not received here.

Andy Gill obit

Clipped By:

jackmo77 Sat, Feb 11, 2017

