

Harold Klinkert

CLINTON (PNS)—Harold P. Klinkert, 64, general foreman of Revere Copper and Brass Inc., died at 9:15 p.m. Monday at Dr. John Warner Hospital. He had been ill.

He was taken to Pullen-Boos Funeral Chapel.

He was born April 20, 1913, at Rochester, N.Y., a son of Carl and Louisa Koehler Klinkert, He married Lucille Kelly Sept. 27, 1941, at Utica, N.Y. She survives.

Also surviving are a son, Stephen, Park Forrest; a daughter, Susan Klinkert, Bloomington; a brother, William, Rochester, N.Y.; three sisters, Florence Brown, Jeanette Lang and Helen Beale, all of Rochester, N.Y.

Two brothers and two sisters preceded him in death.

He was a member of St. John's Catholic Church.

Harold Klinkert death

Clipped By:

timcopeland Sat, Dec 2, 2017

