since. Last year he was with Eau Claire in the Class C Northern League where he batted .321.

Considered an outstanding prospect by the Braves, he had impressed Birdie Tebbetts, their new manager, at Bradenton this winter.

Survivors are his parents, Dan and Virginia Hubbard; three brothers, Raymond Clifton, Pearlie Lee and Robert Allen Hubbard, and two sisters, Joyce and Orabell. Raymond and Pearlie are in the service. The others are at home.
